

SD 123 Hometown School

HOMETOWN BUZZ

April 9, 2019

Today at Hometown School, students participated in a Yoga / Kindness Project presented by local yoga instructor, Erin Stevenson.

YOGA / KINDNESS PROJECT

During PE classes today, students worked with local yoga instructor Erin Stevenson on yoga poses and a kindness project. Students learned a variety of yoga poses as strategies to help calm their bodies and self regulate. In addition, students created “warm fuzzy” necklaces to promote kindness and positive affirmations. You can read more about today’s events on the flyer attached to today’s email.

BACK PACK REGISTRATION WENT HOME TODAY!

Please be aware that families of returning students received registration packets for the 19-20 SY today. Please make sure to keep an eye out for them! For more detailed information, please visit the D123 website: <https://d123.org/returning-student-registration-starts-today/>

LIVE LIKE ABBY T-SHIRT FORMS DUE BACK THIS FRIDAY!

On March 26th, Major Bury proclaimed that May will be “Go Gray in May for ABBY” throughout the entire village of Oak Lawn. This proclamation brings added local awareness to National Brain Tumor Awareness Month, which is the cornerstone of the work done by the “Live Like Abby” Foundations. If you too would like to promote this worthy cause, please consider purchasing a “Go Gray in May” t-shirt. Order form is attached to this email. All orders are due back by this Friday, April 12th.

ED. FOUNDATION RAFFLES OFF 55-INCH TELEVISION

If you haven’t already done so, please get your raffle tickets for a chance to win a brand new 55-inch LED television. The D123 Ed. Foundation will be raffling off the TV at Taco N Trivia Night on Friday, May 3rd. Tickets are $5 each or five for $20. Winner need not be present.
